REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

To The

HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Meeting In

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

OCT. 19, 1927

It has been the time honored custom of the District Superintendents to prepare more or less lengthy and detailed reports of the achievements on each District, based on Quarterly Conference records and questionnaires mailed out to the pastors. For the reason that Fourth Quarterly Conference reports are rarely complete, due to the raising of benevolent funds the last few days before the Annual Conference, the Superintendents figures are so incomplete as to make his report a mere optimistic prediction. Usually these hopeful recitals are so disturbingly contradicted by the Statistical reports that the entire procedure seems futile. And since the Treasurer and Statistician will give us a trustworthy statement of gains and losses, it is fitting that the Superintendents report should be more prophetic and challenging than statistical and stereotyped. Therefore, we have together prepared and herewith present a brief statement of our achievements and a proposal of policy and program for the future.

There is always the temptation to become enthusiastic in reporting our work and leave the impression that more has been accomplished than the records will justify. With this danger in mind we modestly remark that we have had a good year. Our pastors have tried to be faithful and render acceptable service. The laymen have been as alert as in any previous year and have co-operated splendidly. Many of our lay leaders have been very active in seeking to bestir the indifferent and give vision to the laggard charges. We cannot too strongly express our appreciation to these leaders for their sympathetic work in the interest of our common task.

As your Superintendents we have tried to honestly and faithfully face our problems and responsibilities. It is not for us to say how well we have done our task, but we have sincerely wanted to do it well. We have tried to be leaders and not task masters. We have sympathized with every pastor and have sought to be helpful. It has been our intention to get the viewpoint of the laymen and listen to all constructive suggestions. Our sole purpose has been to build the Kingdom of Christ and please our Master.

The records for the year will show that 12 churches have been built; 35 have been improved and repaired; 1 parsonage has been built and 16 improved. Some significant changes have been made in organization in a number of parishes; many special evangelistic campaigns have been held with gratifying results and a large number of members have been added to the churches. The exact number of additions cannot be accurately reported at this time because of incomplete figures at the time of preparing our report and some very thorough revision of some church registers. Our net gain will, we fear, be seriously reduced for this reason. We have carefully looked into the revised records to see that no members were lost to the church through a misunderstanding of the law regarding non-resident members. The revisions seem to have been carefully made and are therefore trustworthy. It is a serious matter to suffer loss by this means, but it is important that we have accurate church membership rolls.

We have given considerable attention to the program of Religious Education, which has been under the direction of Rev. H. G. Williamson. The churches have been so willing to receive help in their work that the Director has found it difficult to answer all the calls for service. He has personally served 57 churches; conducted 154 services in the interest of the work; has devoted 10 days to teaching in the Epworth League Institutes, and 10 days to the Summer School of Theology. Fifteen days have been given to Standard Training Schools. Approximately 500 teachers have received training during the year, either in local training classes or in Standard Training Schools. Thirty-nine Daily Vacation Bible Schools have been conducted. In these schools nearly 3,000 children and young people have received training in worship, hymnology, missions and Bible study. In a number of schools graded literature has been introduced, better Hymn books secured, additional equipment provided and organization improved.

The Laymen's Association has been very helpful in sponsoring the work of Religious Education in the Conference, in addition to carrying forward the usual type of program for the year. The Leagues have also enjoyed a splendid year of service and achievement. The Institute at Sevierville has come to be one of the most significant events of the year. Not only is it educational and inspirational in character but it is evangelism of a high order. Probably no week in the year means quite so much to our young people as Institute week. All our pastors should take advantage of the splendid opportunities offered by this important event. The various Women's Organizations have also worked faithfully and have creditable reports. Our total benevolent giving as a Conference is greatly increased by the Missionary Societies, while the budget of many a struggling church has been strengthened by the Ladies' Aid Society.

But time would fail us to attempt a detailed statement concerning all the work of the year. Our purpose is to challenge the Conference with a statement dealing with our future. We are not content to merely continue in the usual way the doing of the usual things. We have no radical proposals but we do insist upon a vigorous program of advance for the coming years.

We think it is wise to emphasize the fact that ours is a connectional church and we must have a connectional program. There is every reason why we should expect loyal co-operation from all our people, and certainly there is no question as to what the attitude of all our preachers should be. To meet the present emergency and to safeguard our future, the church must think in terms of a unified program under unified leadership, majoring along a few well defined and very essential lines. It is possible to retard our own progress by scattered effort.

There is urgent need for a correlated program of evangelism which will have power to challenge the constituency of the church with the reasonableness and imperativeness of the Christian life. So great is the conviction that an adequate program of evangelism is the greatest need of the church today, that our Bishops and leaders are calling upon our pastors and churches for a more earnest acceptance of this supreme task. Many have accepted Christ during the past year but not all of these have affiliated with the church. It is as much our obligation to relate men to the church as it is to win them to a decision. Mass evangelism has been our chief method in the past. We think it should play its part in the future program, but there must be increasing emphasis upon personal evangelism as the method of the Master. There must also be more insistence upon the conservation of child life in building the Kingdom. The child must be in the midst. Our Sunday Schools offer the largest opportunity for personal evangelism. Every church should report a large number received from the Sunday School.

It is no far cry from a discussion of evangelism to a consideration of Religious Education as a method of evangelism. Religious Education has a two-fold purpose. First, it seeks to conserve the spiritual possibilities of childhood. Second, it aims at motivating the growing experience of all individuals with spiritual ideals. Spirituality is conditioned upon right ideas, ideals, habits and attitudes. If the church is to experience new life, it will come only as men get fresh visions of God, new glimpses of truth as revealed in Christ. There must be a quickened sense of duty and obligation toward the world-wide program of the church; a rekindled interest in the commonly accepted means of grace such as prayer, Bible study, and public worship. But this is essentially an educational process, and suggests that all the activities of the church should rest upon a foundation of religious training, scientific in method and spiritual in content. We need to remember that the educational approach is slow and exercise patience as we dedicate ourselves to the task of growing the Kingdom in our day and generation.

Teacher Training is fundamental to the success of our program of Religious Education. Trained teachers will mean the adoption and successful use of departmental organization and graded instruction in our church schools. Proper equipment for the school will also be demanded when the teachers have a thorough understanding of the methods, materials and equipment necessary. Week day instruction in religion and Daily Vacation Bible Schools will naturally follow when our pastors, officers and teachers are prepared for the work and are conscious of their responsibility and opportunity. Most of our rural Sunday Schools and many of those in towns and cities are sadly antiquated in organization, equipment and curriculum. We have crowded the child into one room with all ages, much confusion and little instruction while we have measured success in terms of numbers. We must make the need of the child the law of the school.

We must continue to emphasize the importance of the home, for as Mr. Roosevelt once said: "If we solve every other problem in the wisest possible way, it shall profit us nothing if we have lost our own national sole and we will have lost it if we do not have the question of the relations of the family put upon the proper basis." Most of the serious problems facing the church will be greatly simplified when vital religion dominates family life. The first church was in the home and the church of the present is dependent upon Christian homes in carrying forward the work of establishing a Christian social order.

We are encouraged as we consider the contribution made to our program of instruction and cultivation by the various institutions of learning within our Conference. The University of Chattanooga is enjoying a continued increase in students and financial resources. During the year 667 students, including those enrolled in Summer School and extension work, received instruction in the University. $200,000 has been added to the endowment, making an addition of $500,000 since 1922. This marks the conclusion of the endowment campaign. The institution is in position to make a most valuable contribution to the Holston territory in service of the highest order.

Tennessee Wesleyan, with increased recognition by the Colleges of the state and section; with enlarged enrollment and renewed loyalty on the part of alumni and friends, is entering upon a period of great service. This historic institution has sent out into life many men of sterling character and splendid ability who have played a very important part in the political, economic and religious life of our section. The coming years will only enlarge the field of service and add to the usefulness of this college.

Murphy Collegiate Institute has also rendered a signal service to the Holston Conference in the years gone by. The fine campus, the fertile farm adjoining and the modern buildings make it possible for this institution in the edge of the mountains to continue a useful ministry to the belated students of our mountain section. We think the future type of work should not be simply a duplication of the work of the County High School, but a distinct type of Christian service worked out with the co-operation of our General Board of Education. One has only to look at the steps leading into the old college building, worn half through the stone by the feet of the mountain youth who came in search of an education, to resolve that this school shall not fail for lack of friends or funds, in this day of reconstruction.

Recognizing the importance of these institutions in relation to our unified program of service in the future, we recommend a permanent educational policy in the Holston Conference that will safeguard the financial prosperity and increasing efficiency of these schools, and that will avoid duplication and overlapping of program.

We must also commend the work of our mountain schools, Pittman Community Center and John A. Patten Community Center. These schools should be feeders to our other institutions. But for them many young people of the mountains would not get a vision of their possibilities and the need for going away to college.

It would not be fair to leave this section of our report without mentioning the Summer School of Theology and the School of Missions, both of which hold their sessions at Athens. The young ministers of the Conference are finding the School of Theology the most valuable aid in pursuance of their course of study and the stimulation and cultivation of their powers as Christian ministers. Under the direction of a strong faculty the course of study is made a pleasure instead of drudgery. Every undergraduate is urged to attend the eighth session next summer.

The School of Missions, which embraces the work of both Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, is doing much to increase interest in missionary work.

We wish to give a place in this report to a survey of our city and rural work. Probably as we face some facts we shall be able to form some high resolutions. To lift up our eyes and look on the fields is a necessary preparation for Christian service.

The last official Journal of the Holston Conference reveals the information that 7938 members, or one sixth of our total membership of 47,653, are in the 21 churches of Chattanooga and Knoxville. The total giving of these city churches for ministerial support and benevolences is $95,635 as opposed to $268,333 for the entire Conference. The total Disciplinary Benevolences of the Conference last year amounted to $47,203. Of this amount $28,237 came from the 21 city churches. The balance of the Conference gave only $18,966. We have gone further in solving our city problems than we have in working out a solution to the country church problem. We have better organizations and equipment and a more intensive program in every respect. And yet a survey of our church buildings is rather disconcerting. We do not have an outstanding plant, providing for every phase of a modern program, except our First Church in Chattanooga. We have a number of new plants and some splendid old ones, but not one other building is thoroughly modern and adequate. Most of our plants follow the lines of the old Akron plan. Other denominations in our territory are wisely building a few great churches, which shall set the pace and furnish ideas for the building of other plants. Their example is wholesome and we should follow it. The time has come when some of our stronger churches, with antiquated buildings, should with courage and enthusiasm, erect splendid modern houses of worship which would not only provide for their own program but inspire smaller churches to erect church buildings commensurate with their needs.

City missionary societies should be maintained faithfully, and an aggressive program of extension should be launched. Strong churches may sponsor organizations in unchurched and developing sections of the cities and assist in maintaining them until they become self supporting.

Social service rather than self service will not only mean the salvation of the city by the church but it will also mean the salvation of the city church. Our chief concern in the midst of the many social problems of the city is not how to save the church but how to make the church a redemptive force in the city life. Our development is dependent upon the measure of our service.

We are convinced that a new program must be wrought out for our rural field. It is generally admitted that the country church supplies recruits for our cities, and yet, our efforts have mainly gone to improve the city church. Meantime, the rural churches are characterized by the same lack of organization, equipment and approved methods as in former years. One room buildings are the rule. Departmentalized and graded Sunday Schools are rarely found. Divine worship in the regular Sunday service is, in the majority of the churches, conducted only once a month. There are constant losses through death and the migration of our people to the towns and cities. Those who remain have become discouraged and, what is even more serious, the young people who are the hope of the church receive the benefit of education in schools which have out-distanced the churches in the march of progress.

Permit us to give a very brief resume of some of our problems. Many charges have too many churches and as a result the pastor cannot give the time necessary to each church. The buildings are small and inadequate; mainly one room structures. Churches are poorly located due to a mistake when the church was built, the shifting of the community center or the changing of main highways. Most country churches are remote from the railroad and bad county roads make it difficult to reach them in the winter months. Pastors' salaries are too small and it is frequently necessary for other work to be done to supplement the support. This divides the interest of the minister and makes him less efficient in the service he renders. Pastorates are usually too short. Preacher and people have only time to get acquainted when some one begins agitating for a change or the preacher asks for another charge. Constructive work is impossible so long as this condition obtains to any considerable extent. Untrained leadership is largely responsible for this state of affairs and not until our pastors and officials become more acutely aware of the possibilities of the country church and get a vision of their obligations can we hope to get far with a solution.

Another problem is largely of our own creation. In raising our ministerial standards we have been training men for station work. We have apparently regarded training as a good and sufficient reason why a man should not serve a circuit. The number expecting station appointments is growing larger than the number of stations, while it is becoming increasingly difficult to secure men who will give the circuits the type of program and ministry necessary to bring success. We do not overlook the fact that inadequate salaries and a backward state of mind in the rural church largely account for this attitude on the part of the ministry. But we are of the opinion that an adequate support cannot be secured and an alert and progressive country church be developed until men of the heroic mold, thoroughly trained and capable of producing results, give themselves in the spirit of Jesus to this challenging task. Our rural churches are rich in possibilities; our people have money enough if they will become Christian stewards, and the future is not by any means hopeless if we dedicate ourselves to the solution of our problems, which means the acceptance of our responsibilities.

We recommend a complete survey of our rural field and a reorganization of our program. We shall have to consider the Larger Parish Plan, the Consolidated Church, smaller circuits, better and larger buildings and a ministry of a high type. There is no reason why the country church should not enter into the largest place of service it has ever enjoyed if we seriously undertake our task.

We close with a consideration of World Service, for after all, the church is but beginning its task when it cares for its own interests and develops its own organizations. Until we serve the whole world we do not approximate Christianity. We fear that too many churches have been more concerned about receiving from the benevolent funds, than contributing to the missionary enterprise. Our records show that in 1923 Holston Conference paid to World Service $41,746; in 1924 $28,959; in 1925 $25,375; in 1926 $24,896. A net loss in four years of $16,850 in our giving is a serious matter. We fear the figures for this year will not show a gain over last year. The latest reports from the World Service Treasurer indicates an increase, but other reports from the field are not so encouraging.

We are concerned for the success of the benevolent program, not only because of the money that may be released for useful ends, but because the benevolent spirit is necessary to bring spiritual prosperity. Interest in the ends of the earth does not diminish our interest in our own work. Generous giving to the missionary cause does not deplete our local treasuries. But on the other hand we may center our interests in our own community and congregation, and we may think only of our own budget, until our spiritual vitality ebbs away, our grip on our own situation weakens and our budget knows great need.

As we think of the many projects halted in their development by the decline of benevolent giving, and the many cuts in appropriations, so seriously hampering the work on the Foreign field, our hearts ache. When we consider the real ability of our church, we are ashamed of our penuriousness. It is easy to say, that something should be done about it, but what shall we do? We suggest, first of all, that as preachers we must more and more lay this matter on the hearts of our people. We must challenge the church to prove the Lord by bringing all the tithes into the storehouse.

But to guarantee the development of the missionary spirit and the permanent lifting of our standards of giving, we must teach stewardship through Sunday Schools, Leagues and Missionary Societies. The slow method is the surest. High pressure may temporarily increase our collections but a reaction, unfavorable in character will follow.

At the center of our World Service program we must see the Cross of Christ. In all our work we must hear Him say: "Lovest thou Me?" If this be true we must surely respond: "Lord we will follow Thee."

Shall we not in view of our great opportunity in this new day of material progress, make safe and sure the spiritual prosperity of the church. Our Conference occupies territory which is at the very heart of the greatest industrial development in the nation. Capital from older sections is coming into East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia in a veritable golden torrent. Virgin timber; most of the minerals to be found in the nation; water power enough to stagger the imagination; ample railroad and river transportation, together with farm and business opportunities to challenge the finest type of manhood, all point to changes in the social and economic order in the next ten years, which have been a generation in coming to other sections.

The Church of Christ must keep pace. Christ is adequate for any age and all conditions. His cause must prosper and His followers go marching on. Shall we follow in his train?

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

The Methodist Episcopal Church has been an evangelistic body from its first organization. There has been no period in our glorious history when the flame of evangelism did not burn and blaze.

We rejoice in the prosperity of our schools and the increasing number of educated ministers and laymen, and we are thankful that their hearts still ring true to the spirit of evangelism.

We rejoice in the good reports of our Conference evangelists, and the agencies in our local churches for evangelism, especially the Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, Brotherhoods. We are hopeful that the strong evangelistic messages delivered to this Conference by Drs. Hannon and Crane will bear rich fruitage in our fields of labor next year.

We, your committee, on evangelism, recommend that our city pastors spend a part of their vacations in the country holding revival meetings; and that the strong churches encourage their pastors to help the weak churches in revival meetings next year.

REV. J. H. FORD,
E. G. GILLESPIE.

STATE OF THE CHURCH AND THE COUNTRY

The investigations of students of social problems in America are revealing conditions which cause us to look with great concern upon the present and future welfare of our country. It has become clear to us that society today is a composite of both pagan and Christian ideals, sanctions and customs. It is the high purpose of the church to help to eliminate from our national social structure all destructive forces, and to conserve those influences which make for stability and permanency in our institutions of government. That disintegrating tendencies are strongly active in our national life is obvious. There is taking place in the United States today "the greatest concentration of wealth in the hands of the few that history has ever recorded." Lawlessness boldly stalks abroad unchecked. Population shifts are distinctly toward towns and cities, thus impoverishing rural life, and bringing to the congested centers large numbers of people who are morally unprepared to cope with the conditions of their new environment.

With these and other facts just as alarming staring us in the face, it is certain that the church needs a pentecost and a fresh vision of God. The disciples of Jesus are still the salt of the earth. Religion is the soul of civilization. We need to preach Jesus as the Way, the Truth and the Life for social groups as well as individuals, as it is a fact that our faith is to be tested not so much by orthodoxy of creed as by the quality of our experience and conduct before the world. Therefore, let us give little heed to theological disturbances so common today; but let us with the courage of the prophets direct our preaching toward a more diligent application of the principles of Jesus to the threatening problems of our country.

Deaconess Work

This being an important department of our work it should be given due recognition. This board comes not to be ministered unto; but like our Lord to minister. Hence we hereby, most gratefully acknowledge the great work achieved under the work of this board, and heartily commend its work to the church, and pledge our co-operation.

Sabbath Observance

We deplore the increasing desecration of the Holy Sabbath; the concerted efforts put forth by disloyal un-Americans of the United States to break down its laws, and to bring them into disrepute. We, therefore, respectfully urge all Christians and civil institutions to co-operate in the maintenance of this Holy Day set apart by our God and hallowed for the worship of Almighty God.

RESOLUTION, TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION

Never in the history of our Nation, since the liquor question has been an issue, has there been such determined effort to violate, desecrate and demoralize into the deepest degradation and in the most contemptible treason against that part of our Constitution, known as the Eighteenth Amendment, and regulated by the Volstead Act, as is now put forth on the part of the foes of Temperance, Prohibition and Law Enforcement. No stone is left unturned, no effort is spared by them to encourage the violation of the law, to exaggerate the premeditated criminal conduct of their henchmen.

Now, in as much as these propagandists are attempting to inject their treasonable purposes into politics;

And, since strong pressure is being brought to bear by them upon ambitious politicians;

Therefore, we, the Members of the Holston Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session, Oct. 19th, Knoxville, Tennessee, hereby mutually agree, and pledge ourselves to use our utmost legitimate influence with our 48,000 Members, and as many constituents, against the nomination and election of any wet candidate for public office, from the President down to the most insignificant official, regardless of party affiliation.

Signed by—

J. H. MEYERS,
CHARLES B. TARWATER,
W. E. BISHOP,
WILLIAM M. DYE.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Bishop W. F. McDowell, having been appointed to preside over the Holston Conference at this time, and having been hindered in coming by personal affliction, we deeply regret his inability to come, and, we hereby express our real disappointment, and sincere sympathy for him in his affliction, praying for his speedy recover. We further direct our Secretary to send Bishop McDowell our regrets and sympathy.

Signed,

WILLIAM M. DYE,
CHARLES A. BRIGGS.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, In the disappointment of our not having Bishop W. F. McDowell hold our Conference, as appointed, thus necessitating a change of presidency, we are greatly delighted to have our own beloved Bishop W. P. Thirkield, to again come to us at this time; and especially are we happy to have him since this will be his last opportunity to hold our Conference, he too, having been afflicted with a personal malady of having been born too soon to overcome certain General Conference legislation, affecting the time of his retirement. We extend to Bishop Thirkield our continued high appreciation of his brotherly spirit among us, and pledge him our most hearty support and co-operation.

Signed,

WILLIAM M. DYE,
CHARLES A. BRIGGS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

The committee has gone carefully over the memorial from the executive committee of Tennessee Wesleyan College to the Holston Conference presented by President James L. Robb, and makes the following recommendations:

First: That we as a Conference adopt Tennessee Wesleyan College of Liberal Arts according to and in agreement with its Charter and pledge our moral and financial support;

Second: That a campaign be launched immediately to inspire greater interest among all alumni and former students of the East Tennessee Wesleyan University, Grant University and School of Theology at Athens;

Third: To discover and enlist new friends for the Institution;

Fourth: To unite with the Trustees upon a program of moral and financial support that will enable the College to continue its work without handicap and measure up to its great opportunity;

Fifth: That a committee of not less than five, three ministers and two laymen, be appointed by the Holston Conference to serve with a committee of like number from the Trustees of Tennessee Wesleyan College to determine at the earliest possible time the amount necessary to relieve the present indebtedness and supplement established sources of income to such an extent as will make it possible for the School to carry forward its educational program without embarrassment;

Sixth: That as soon as the Church mind can be prepared for it the committee settle the amount to be raised within the patronizing territory of the College as a permanent and productive Endowment, and that in the program shall be included a Professorship to be known as the Chair of Mathematics, and a Professorship to be known as the Chair of Foreign (or Ancient) Languages:

Seventh: That the committee of five from the Holston Conference and five from the Trustees of Tennessee Wesleyan College be authorized to fix the time when the campaign shall be launched and the methods to be employed in raising the necessary funds, with the understanding that no Professional Agency outside of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall be employed to carry forward an intensive every-member "drive", but shall be directed and carried on by persons within the Methodist Episcopal Church, and amenable to the Church, with such restrictions as are in keeping with the high religious and educational standards of the Methodist Episcopal Church and her Schools;

Eighth: That the Resident Bishop, as soon as he shall have had time to think it over, appoint a committee of not less than five to co-operate with the authorities of Murphy Collegiate Institute in making a careful investigation as to the conditions and needs of the Institute and give the moral, and as far as possible, the financial support of the Conference. * * * These recommendations were unanimously passed by the committee, and moves the adoption of the same.

WM. F. PITTS, Chairman.

EDUCATION

We, your committee on Education, submit the following report. We note with interest and gratitude, that Methodism from the beginning realized the importance of schools and the education of its people. We find the physical proportions of the educational system of our great Church impressive indeed. There are as many as one hundred and fifty institutions including universities, colleges, professional schools, training schools and secondary schools; nineteen schools in the south for negroes. Methodism has long realized that religion and education are the real basis of civilization. The above named institutions represent a total property value of at least one hundred million dollars. And beside these, we find about forty Wesley Foundations in connecting with tax-supported or private institutions, where many of our Methodist young people are taking courses of instruction. There are more than 100,000 young people enrolled in the schools of the Church, in training for ministerial and lay leadership of the Church. There are a million Epworth Leaguers in line for the same cause, and five million Sunday School pupils.

The University of Chattanooga continues to make steady progress. Six years ago when it was proposed that this Conference endorse a movement to add $500,000 to the endowment many thought the task impossible. But the Holston Conference endorsed the proposal and in June 1927, the last $200,000 of this amount was added to the permanent funds of the institution.

The increase of student body and the improved quality of work has been just as marked. The University not only stands for the highest ideals of scholarship, but it has been a vital spiritualizing agency. It is constantly sending men as ministers into the Holston Conference and has at present five of its recent graduates in Garrett, Boston and Drew taking graduate theological seminaries.

Tennessee Wesleyan College at Athens and, Murphy Collegiate Institute at Sevierville, are forging to the front. The student body is large, the faculty strong, and the outlook encouraging. Both institutions are endeavoring to increase their endowment and provide for debts incurred. They deserve, and should receive, the hearty support of our people.

Church Literature

Our Methodist Book Concern is the house of good books. We are pleased to note a large display at this conference session. We urge the largest patronage of our Concern.

The Southeastern Christian Advocate has a warm place in the hearts of preachers and people. It has greatly improved in recent years and is a strong bond of unity in our Southern work. As pastors we pledge it our utmost support and will do all in our power to enlarge its circulation.

The Epworth League

Indeed the youth is looking to the Church. If there ever were a great host of high school and college life that needs guidance and help it is the great tide of this rising generation. They have the greatest chance that any generation in America has ever had to equip themselves for the vocations, and therefore they need the strengthening of the moral fiber to balance their purpose and leaven their work. The Methodist Church would lead its youth, and The Epworth League offers opportunity for their growth and direction.

To this great work the Church itself pays close attention. The Annual Institute is a source of much strength to Holston Leaguers, and it is urged that every pastor see to it that his young people get the benefit of this great inspiration.

The four fold program of work in the League Chapter should be emphasized in every church. Make it "Young Peoples' Work for Young People."

Also, the whole Church in its Official Board and in all its life, should give first interest to the promotion of this great enterprise of evangelising and training of the rich young life that shall be the Church of tomorrow. Help them with their budget, and guide them in their program.

Sunday Schools

The Conference Minutes of last year report a total of 466 Sunday Schools, enrolling a total of 51,766 pupils. In charge of these schools are 3819 officers and teachers. The Sunday Schools at present constitute the primary agency of Religious Education within the bounds of the Conference. The good that is accomplished by this great group of volunteer workers will never be definitely known, for character cannot be tabulated. However, it is possible to evaluate the work of the Sunday Schools in such terms as curriculum, organization, equipment, time schedules, and preparation of teachers.

While a number of schools still use lesson materials published by non-denominational publishing houses, yet an increasing number are improving their curriculum by the introduction of graded lessons, the Abingdon texts, and the elective courses for young people. However, the principle of graded songs for children and young people is largely ignored. In the main, hymn books that have been purchased for adult Evangelistic Campaigns are used in the Sunday Schools. Children are encouraged to sing songs that contradict the Methodist teaching concerning the child's relationship to God. It should be said though that hymn books of excellent quality have been introduced into a few schools during the past year.

Our schools are poorly organized. With the exception of the larger churches little effort is made to classify the pupils according to the commonly accepted age groupings. Classes are often found with pupils ranging from four to fourteen years of age. The Methodist Book Concern no longer publishes the uniform lessons for the elementary grades. The Group Graded or the Closely Graded Lessons are to be used instead. It is highly important therefore, that proper classification and strict supervision be observed. The Conference Director through District group meetings and local institutes has been able this year to effect a decided change in this situation in a number of Churches.

More time needs to be devoted to Religious Instruction. A period of thirty minutes on Sunday under conditions not favorable for teaching is not sufficient to counteract the evil influences of the pupil's environment during the other six days. At present the most effective means of supplementing the work of the Sunday Schools is the Daily Vacation Bible School. This past summer there has been conducted within the Conference thirty-nine schools, enrolling 3202 children and young people.

Perhaps the most encouraging phase of the Sunday School work is the desire on the part of the officers and teachers for training. A good beginning has been made in this particular. Standard Training Schools have been conducted in Lenoir City, Chattanooga, and Knoxville, reaching twenty-five different churches; while local training classes have been held in seven churches. Six hundred teachers have been in training during the past year. Pastors, District Superintendents, and Sunday School Superintendents have been gracious in their co-operation with the Conference Director. The time seems to be ripe for a great forward movement in the work of the Sunday Schools of the Holston Conference.

Education of Negroes

The Chattanooga area being in the Southland makes especially interesting that little ship of 1619, of which no poet has written. That ship carried to America a complex problem that cannot be discarded. Eighty five per cent of the Negroes in the United States are south of the Mason-Dixon Line. A large per cent of them are still under the bondage of illiteracy that kept their forefathers from the full enjoyment of freedom. The education of Negroes faces us today as directly as did freedom in 1860. The prohibition of education for a time among the Negroes has given them a burning desire for it. We seriously doubt if any other similar amount of missionary money has ever yielded greater returns than that invested in the education of the Negro race. The Methodist Episcopal Church has led all denominations in the solution of this problem. Four hundred thousand of them are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She has planted numerous schools and colleges touching nearly a million students who have in turn reached millions of others. But with these great results, much remains to be done.

RESOLUTION OF EQUALIZATION OF FARES

WHEREAS, The Preachers of Methodism constitute a great Brotherhood of over 36,000 (36,047), of whom over 21,000 (21,149) are members of the various Annual Conferences throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, Each Annual Conference constitutes a local unit of the whole Brotherhood; and,

WHEREAS, It has not seemed possible to equalize salaries, thus giving greater support and comfort to those who serve the less remunerative and more out of the way charges; and,

WHEREAS, Since all pastors are required by the Discipline, to attend the annual sessions of the Conference, notwithstanding the above inequalities of salaries and travel from the out of the way places to attend said Conferences;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the ministers of the Holston Conference, now in session, are in deep sympathy with all who get meager salaries and have the longer distances to travel, to the seat of Conference, and, in recognition of our sincere interest the one for the other, do hereby, respectfully ask the Cabinet to appoint at this session a committee of six, one being from each District and one at large to act as chairman of said Committee, for the purpose of collecting all possible data as to the traveling expense, distances and so forth, and report back to this body Friday morning, the feasibility of the adoption of the Equalization of fares, if in the judgment of the Conference it seems possible.

Respectfully submitted, signed by—

WILLIAM M. DYE,

RESOLUTION

Resolved, that we express our high appreciation of the long and faithful services of J. M. Emert and J. D. Harris who are taking the retired relation at this session. We assure them of our enduring love and constant prayers.

(Adopted.)

I move, that instead of a Board of Sunday Schools this Conference shall create a Board of Religious Education to be composed of one pastor and one layman from each district plus seven at large, the district superintendents being members ex-officio. This Board shall have supervision of all the educational work of the Conference conducted in the local church.

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

This, the eighty-fourth session of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church must be acclaimed as one of the greatest, if not the greatest, that has ever been held in the Holston territory. The mental stimulation and spiritual inspiration received from the visiting speakers, the prophetic composite reports of our District Superintendents, the evangelistic emphasis in the entire program; the constructive and forward looking program of religious education; the policy adopted by the Conference with respect to our educational institutions, and the unusual provision made by the local entertainment committee, whereby the business of the Conference could be efficiently transacted are all in keeping with the spirit of progress now surging in the life of the Church throughout the South.

For all this we wish to express our thanks to all those who helped to make it possible; especially do we thank Dr. R. M. Millard, our host; the local entertainment committee, the members of First Church, the Boy Scouts of First Church, and the pastors and members of all the other Methodist Churches of the city.

The visiting speakers have been representative of the best minds of the Church. We want to express our gratitude to them for their able and stimulating addresses, and for the special services which some of them have given in committee meetings.

We commend the Methodist Book Concern for its unusually large and attractive display of books, and we are truly grateful for the services it renders our people.

We thank the officers of the Conference for their faithful and effective services and the press of the city or its generous publicity of Conference news.

We want to thank and commend the Laymen's Association for their hearty support of the Ministry of the Conference and especially for the forward step it has taken in helping to support the Conference program of religious education.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation of the wise administration of our beloved Bishop Thirkield during his four years in this area. He has been a brother to us all; his labors have been arduous; no Church so small or far removed as not to receive his kindly services and most careful attention. We thank him most heartily and pray heaven's richest blessings upon him and his good wife as they retire from the official duties. We hope that Bishop and Mrs. Thirkield will decide to live in the South where they have spent the most of their long and wonderful ministry.

Our hearts are full of gratitude to our heavenly Father for his guidance during the past year and for our faith in the ultimate triumph of spiritual values. As we look to the year just ahead we gird ourselves anew for the battle that shall never end until Jesus Christ has been crowned King of Kings and Lord of lords.

Respectfully submitted,

Com. GEO. J. CRESWELL,
L. L. HAMIL,
H. M. HAWK.

MEMOIRS

J. W. McGEE

Rev. J. W. McGee went home to heaven August 7, 1926. His departure was from his residence, Knoxville, Tenn., after several months illness. He was born June 24, 1852, in Macon County, North Carolina. When a young man, he studied for the ministry and was admitted to the Holston Conference on trial in 1886, and was ordained in 1888 by Bishop Mallalieu, as a deacon and was ordained as an elder by Bishop Foss in 1892. His pastorates cover the following charges. Holston: South Pittsburg, Tenn., 1886 to 1887; Tracy City 1889-1890; Clinton 1891-1892; Bristol and Elizabethton 1893. Elizabethton and Carnegie 1894; Chuckey 1895-1896; Fall Branch 1896-1899; Little River 1900-1902; Knoxville Circuit in 1903; Morristown Circuit 1904; Rutledge 1905; Oakwood 1906-1907. The fall of 1907 he went to Oklahoma, accepting a church; he continued active in church work until he had to give it up on account of his health. He retired in 1911.

The funeral service was held at Park City M. E. Church. Dr. G. T. Francisco being in charge, assisted by Dr. W. F. Pitts, pastor of Park City Church, and other ministers. His brethren in the ministry, the Rev. W. K. Wilkerson, the Rev. J. M. Dew, the Rev. H. M. Hawk, the Rev. E. M. Boyd, were the pallbearers. His body was laid to rest in beautiful Woodlawn cemetery. He was married twice. His first wife being Miss Nannie L. Long, daughter of the Rev. W. R. Long, of Holston Conference. To this union were born three daughters and two sons; Caddie, Gem, Elizabeth, W. W. McGhee and J. E. McGhee. He is survived by his widow and five daughters; Mrs. Leonard Peters, Mrs. Chas. H. Blake, Misses Mary, Nina and Helen McGhee and also four sons. W. W. of Macon, Ga., J. E. McGhee, who is teaching in the University of Michigan. A. N. and Paul McGhee of Buffalo, New York. Mrs. Leonard Peters, Mrs. Chas. H. Blake, W. W. McGhee and John E. McGhee, being children by his first wife, who died March 13, 1901. He also leaves four brothers.

MRS. G. W. COLEMAN

Sarah Elizabeth Runyon, daughter of Elias and Martha Crockett Runyon, was born November 29, 1838, in Champaign County, Ohio, and died at her home in Cleveland, Tenn., July 2 1927, aged eighty-seven years. She was married to the Rev. G. W. Coleman, April 23, 1863, and to this union five children were born, two of whom—Mrs. R. J. Miller and Lawrence Beecher Coleman—both of Chattanooga, preceded her in death. Surviving are three daughters: Mrs. T. L. Rogers, Cleveland, Tenn.; Mrs. C. H. Jennings, Wahsington, D. C., and Mrs. W. C. Fawcett, Martins Ferry, Ohio; one brother and one sister, both of Woodstock, Ohio; also eleven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Mrs. Coleman was brought up in a Presbyterian home. Before her marriage she attended a revival meeting conducted by Bro. Coleman, was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, to which she remained a faithful and loyal member until her death. In 1866 the Rev. and Mrs. Coleman came to Tennessee. The Rev. Coleman joined the Holston Conference, and his devoted companion shared with him in those days of struggle all the hardships of that re-construction period. Days of hardship they were—salary almost nothing—yet she never complained. Wholly unselfish, denying herself, and always giving up the best, truly it can be said, "She lived for others." She was active in all branches of church work, especially in the Sunday school and missionary societies, always faithful in her attendance at church, a real mother to her pastors, her home a haven of rest for many, and brightened by her lovely life of devotion to her family. The funeral service was conducted at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Cleveland, Tenn., by her pastor, the Rev. W. L. Oliver, assisted by Bishop R. J. Cooke, who gave a beautiful tribute to the memory of this dear saint; also Dr. J. M. Melear, Dr. W. M. Dye, the Rev. W. A. Smith and Dr. Arlo A. Brown had a part in the service. The body was laid to rest on a beautiful knoll in Fort Hill Cemetery, Cleveland, Tenn., beneath a mass of floral offerings, a tribute of respect and love to the memory of her who gave her entire life to her family and the church. She has gone, but the memory of what she has been to us will live on forever.

MRS. JAMES M. MELEAR

Grace Gertrude Stafford was born April 30, 1884. She was married October 19, 1905, to the Rev. Dr. James M. Melear, Knoxville, Tennessee, Bishop Charles H. Fowler, officiating. Two children blessed this union—Gertrude Elizabeth, now Mrs. Frank U. Lockmiller, and Mary Louise. Mrs. Melear went to her heavenly home March 1, 1927. In announcing her death in the Southeastern Christian Advocate, of which her husband is editor, Bishop Cooke wrote:

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

So is ever sounding out the Voice of Triumph over Death. It is the Voice of Cheer to the sorrowing from the unseen glory where there is neither sorrow nor sighing, nor any more death. The readers of this Advocate and the whole Church in this region will utter this affirmation in their hearts when they read this announcement that on March 1, Mrs. Grace Gertrude Melear, the dearly loved wife of the Rev. Dr. James M. Melear, Editor of this Advocate, passed away beyond earth's shadows to Eternal Light and Life in the fellowship of the Redeemer. The editor, Dr. Melear, has recorded many times with sorrow the death of friends and church members in the columns of this paper; now another hand than his writes for him in his hour of grief these sad lines. But who can speak what the heart feels? Mrs. Melear had not been in good health for some time, but hope that a brighter day would dawn, that the old-time strength and gladness would return, gradually faded away despite all that watchful love could do. She loved her home and clung to it with all the strength of a woman's heart, endeavoring to lighten the shadow that was slowly creeping over her loved ones. On the very day of her death she sat with her little family at the noon-day meal. It was the last time. That afternoon cerebral hemorrhage parted her from them and she went away in the peace of God to her heavenly home.

From childhood up Mrs. Melear lived the Christian life. That life was as natural to her as the air she breathed. She knew no other. Her quiet disposition, her gentle ways and kindly heart, made more beautiful by tenderest affection on those who clung to her with deepest devotion, made friends for God wherever she lived. Her influence was springlike, bringing out with warmth and geniality the blessed best that was in one and strengthening with invigorating courage the broken in spirit in the day of his adversity. She was God's good gift to him who now sits in the shadow mourning for "the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." But God's Comforter is still with us! He will not leave us alone, and we shall never be so little alone as when alone with Him. Doctor Melear will have the sympathy of his brethren throughout the Church and the prayers of all that the comfort he brought to others in their days of grief may now come to him in super-abundance through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ "Who brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel."

REV. JOHN KIRK RUMBURG

The Rev. John Kirk Rumburg was born August 14, 1853. He passed to his eternal rest from his home at Check, Virginia on January 8, 1927, being more than seventy-two years old at his death.

He was twice married. His first wife, Margaret L. E. Graham having died November 27th, 1905. To this union were born eight children, four of whom survive their father. In 1906 he was married to Miss Ella Perdue and to this union were born nine children, one having died in infancy. He leaves his wife and twelve children as well as a host of friends to mourn for him who is not, for God took him.

Brother Rumburg entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church when quite young. He was admitted on trial in the Virginia Conference in 1878, full member 1880, ordained deacon by Bishop Merrill, elder by Bishop Simpson 1882, and served faithfully until forced to retire on account of ill health. He served as District Superintendent two terms in Roanoke District and as pastor of some of the best Churches with splendid success. He denounced sin with the courage of a Daniel but loved the sinner with a love kin to that of Jesus. He was a man of few equals when it came to preaching, and was loved not only by his own Church but by all denominations.

The end came suddenly but was not unexpected. He expressed a willing resignation to the will of God and was in great peace. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Woodward his pastor, assisted by Rev. N. A. Conner, in the presence of a crowded Church of sorrowing friends. His body was laid to rest in the Wilson Cemetery beneath a mound of beautiful flowers.

REV. J. D. ROBERSON

The Rev. J. D. Roberson, Loudon, Tenn., a retired minister of the Holston Conference, passed away in holy triumph to his home in heaven November 22, 1926. He was admitted on trial in Holston Conference 1875, and into full membership 1877. At that time the Conference embraced part of North Carolina. His appointments were as follows: Holston: Franklin and Webster, N. C., 1875; Catawba, 1876; Hendersonville, 1877; Kingsport, 1878; Jonesboro, 1879; Jonesboro and Johnson City, 1880. Blue Ridge Conference: Greensboro District, 1880-81; Asheville District, 1882-85; Bakersville District, 1886-88; Asheville District, 1889-90; Montezuma, 1891-93. Holston: Loudon, 1894; Athens, 1895; Clinton District, 1896-1901; Chuckey, 1902; Newport, 1903; Cleveland, 1904-07; Harriman, 1908-10; Loudon, 1911; Dayton, 1912; Loudon, 1913-15; retired, 1916. Impressive funeral services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. T. O. Marshall, and Dr. J. M. Emert. Brother Roberson was one of our ablest preachers. We succeeded him at Athens and heard many good things concerning his work. The call to preach came to him early and he made the great adventure. He was never passive or inactive. Marching forward, he caught a vision of human achievement, saw the church with unfurled banners, Christ as the Redeemer of humanity, and was ever happy in presenting Him to the world. He never counted the cost. He braved the storms, endured hardships, fought valiantly, and toiled uncomplainingly on small salaries. Entranced by the bloom and beauty of life coveted the best gifts, welcomed the hardest fields, and won the promised crown. He was great enough to put all the kingdoms of the world behind him rather than forfeit his birthright as a son of God. He wanted to know Christ and the power of His resurrection. He went farther. He desired to enter into the fellowship of His sufferings, he made conformable to His death, and to apprehend the meaning and measure of life. He lived without guile. He reflected the moral beauty of God. He came out into the open. His light shone. He was changed from glory to glory by the Spirit of the Lord. He felt the illuminating splendor of something divine in him. It was there in heroic impulse, glorious aspiration and splendid achievement. And when the final page of his earthly life was written it bore the record, forever ineffaceable, that the ascent of the soul had been ransomed by Christ while the preacher through sacrifice and suffering followed the gleam. Death found him ready. He climbed the hill Beulah, heard the golden trumpeters of God, saw the river of life, the gates of pearl, the sea of glass, and lo! his faith transmitted all sorrow into joy, weakness into strength, sickness into health, defeat into victory, and death into life.

MRS. J. B. KEISTER

Mrs. J. B. Keister, the beloved wife of the Rev. J. B. Keister, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fighener, at Roanoke, Va., on March 21, 1927, at the age of 83 years.

In the last few years of her life she was greatly afflicted, but she endured it all as a child of God until the end came, and died happy in Christ, whom she had served from childhood; having been a loyal member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was a great help to her husband in his ministry, in leading the lost to Christ.

REV. J. H. FORD, Pastor.

*Elders elected to preside in absence of bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was organized. IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EXAMINERS AND CANDIDATES

1. The work of the Board is divided into six groups: Admission on trial; first, second, third, and fourth years; and Local Orders. Each group to be in the hands of a committee—one of the committeemen to be chairman of the committee.

2. Mid-year examinations are required; time and place to be arranged and announced.

3. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for examination.

4. The candidates are urged to buy their books at the very opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects, and after the mid-year examinations make complete survey of the remaining subjects immediately. The examiners are required to correspond with the candidates in the early winter, preparatory to mid-year examinations.

5. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written if practicable, and two weeks ahead of the Annual Conference to send written questions to the Chairman of the Board.

6. The chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the candidates in his department to the registrar.

7. The provision for the mid-year examinations shall not deprive any candidate for admission on trial of the opportunity of being examined at the time appointed for the examination at the Annual Conference.

Prayer

Congregational Prayer for the Conference Session:

"Oh Lord of Heaven and Earth, who hast promised to reveal Thy glory by Jesus Christ among all nations; remember, we beseech Thee, Thy Holy Church throughout the world. Especially do Thou send now Thy blessing upon this Conference assembled in Thy name. Grant unto Thy servants the spirit of power, and of love, and of sound mind, that we may be wise in council and diligent in service, faithful stewards of the things belonging to Thy Kingdom, and worthy successors of the Apostles whom our Lord sent forth to testify of Him. Direct and govern us by the Holy Spirit, preserving us from hasty judgment and vain dispute, inspiring us with hearty love and true devotion, and guiding us both to devise and do those things which shall be for the glory of Christ's name, for the welfare of His Church, for the peace of all believers, for the spread of the Gospel, and for the good of the whole world. Amen."
